600 Hail Christmas With Carols

Cleveland Plain Dealer - December 20, 1938

More than 600 employes of the Cleveland Public Library sang Christmas carols last night as part of the program of their annual Christmas party at the main branch of the library. The singers filled the marble stairways of the building and also grouped around the 25-foot Christmas tree in the lobby.

Miss Edith McArt, head of the music division of the main library, directed the singing. Miss Mary Dollard and Miss Donna Root were in charge of staging and directing a one-act Christmas play.

Remembers Potter School Classmates

Here is a class picture that is different. Taken years ago, at a rural school, this photo has a charm of its own.

Notice how informally the group is arranged. Notice the pretty teacher with the light dress and quaint coiffure. Notice the wistful little girl in the front row, with long bangs parted and brushed back.

Harry Jacque, 13002 Hoy avenue, submits the original. It was taken at Potter School, once located on Harper road near Cannon road, Solon. Mr. Jacque knows where these friends are today with the exception of "Putt." Where is he? The others are:

Nina Yonker, now Mrs. Dr. Paul Curtis; Sarah Baird, now Mrs. John Baker; both of Chagrin Falls.

Winnie Smith, now Mrs. Cass Harper; May Harper, now Mrs. Charles Watson; Carrie Harper, now Mrs. Leroy Wood, all of Cleveland.

Minnie Jacque, now Mrs. Fred S. Britton of Bedford; Nina Niece, now Mrs. O. A. Higely of Springfield Lake; Mary Baird, now Mrs. Oscar Cook of Solon; Lottie Harper, now Mrs. T. W. Taylor of Orange.

Carl Yonker and the teacher, Blanche Ellis, who married Dr. Sidall of Bedford, are deceased.

The boys in the picture are Cassius Harper, Louis McConoughey, Everett Harper, Bert Smith, Wilson Baird, Harry Jacque, Carl Yonker, Leon Putt.
